Worked for Two Large Retailers Waitrose and Tesco
Supervisor

Retail customer service, running a wide range of different section from checkouts, stock control, food service and replenishment. Held role of supervisor.

Volunteer Experience:

I volunteered at my local church Parent and Toddler group, which I have run for 20 years. It was so rewarding, forming those early relationships with the parent and child within the local community.
I also helped at messy church once a month, as part of a volunteer team for children 4-8 years taking part in a variety of activities from playing, making, singing, listening to bible stories and the church providing snacks and meals for children and their parents who attend with them.
I was also on the advisory board at the local children's Centre, and a Governor at Meath Green Infants School, and the Chair of Children and Learning Committee.
Before working in childcare, I volunteered as part of my children's preschool committee, through the role as secretary and fundraising, worked for a brief time in an after-school club and been involved in many other clubs and local projects in the past.

Interests and Hobbies:

- I love getting creative at home making up new craft ideas and activities for getting messy with the little ones! I am a keen artist, which is a fantastic way to express myself. I enjoy singing for fun any time of the day. I have an art fellowship with Richmond Fellowship.
- I take pleasure in spending time maintaining my garden and relaxing outside in the summer. I love socializing, cooking and inventing in the kitchen, especially cakes, soups, and spicy dishes.
- I am married and have three grown-up sons and six cats, and yes, it is interesting at feeding time, with the patter of paws racing to the kitchen.
- When I do have a chance to relax, I love to invite friends over for coffee and cake, go out for dinner, take part in local social events and my local church family.
